We recommend a morning arrival in Catania to allow for the activities this afternoon

>>> Wed April 24: The Siracusa Day

Syracuse is one of Sicily's most famous cities and is steeped in thousands of years of history. This morning we will stroll through the farmer's market enjoy lunch on board a boat. This ship is the perfect way to experience the beauty of the old city from the water. After lunch visit the old quarter of Ortigia, actually an island, but still part of the city. Dinner at the hotel.

Overnight at Masseria Della Volpe (B, L, D)

>>> Thurs April 25: The Seafood Day

After a lazy check out this morning we will stop in the beautiful fishing village of Marzamemi and enjoy amazingly fresh and simple seafood lunch. Famous for its tuna fishing, this picturesque village is heavenly for its simplicity and authenticity. Next head towards Ragusa and check-in to your next hotel, the grand and impressive Eremo Della Giubiliana. We'll get busy in the kitchen this afternoon with a hands-on cooking class and then feast on the dishes we have prepared together. Buon appetito!

Overnight at Eremo delle Giubiliana (B, L, D)

>>> Fri April 26: The Chocolate Day

Morning at leisure at the hotel with lunch on your own if desired. In the early afternoon we head to Modica, the chocolate capital of Sicily and a town well known for its striking churches as for its gastronomic excellence. We will taste the chocolate made by the Bonajuto family who has been making chocolate since 1880. For dinner get busy in the kitchen with a hands-on cooking class with our friend Katia.

A self-made home cook and expert in all Sicilian cuisine, we guarantee this evening will be a true culinary highlight.

Overnight at Eremo delle Giubiliana (B, D)

Sat April 27: The Scaurati Day

Morning visit to the imposing castle of Donnafugata. Then we head to the fishing village of Donna Lucata where we will be meeting local host and food expert/ cookbook author Roberta who has devoted her entire life to Sicilian cuisine and is married to talented local chef Antonio. Lunch with Roberta & Antonio. In the afternoon visit the UNESCO site of Scicli for a taste of the local "scaurati" bread-snack at the bakery. Last stop today is at a donkey farm for a chance to live the Sicily of centuries ago and get a full understanding of the history and farming culture. Dinner at the hotel.
